

Summer Sparks

Camp Songleader Development

Designed and Led by
Rachel Wolman, Rabbi Josh Warshawsky,
Avital Abraham, and Cantor Rosalie Will

Summer Sparks gives young songleaders the skills and confidence they need to create meaningful and inspiring Jewish experiences unique to your camp community.

Participants will learn to lead staff and campers of all ages, how to collaborate with their songleading team, strategic planning and communication, and repertoire old and new that supports worship and camp programming. They will build foundational songleading technique and grow through honest reflection and feedback.

Summer Sparks includes:

- Five 90-minute online sessions in April and May (available on demand if needed)
- Guest teaching artists for dedicated skillbuilding in specialized areas
- One dedicated 30-minute meeting with camp songleading team
- After-camp group debrief and year-round networking opportunities
- Ongoing tracking, support, and connection to learning and leadership opportunities
- Membership in the Sing Unto God community as an Emerging Leader

Fee: $850 per camp

Contact Rosalie@SingUntoGod.org for more information.

Book your team at singuntogod.org/summersparks.

Sing Unto God is a registered 501(c)(3) non-profit organization